What people are saying about CPD 1

An autonomous school system can only be as good as its professional workforce. The government is committed to helping schools and teachers take more responsibility for their professional development.

David Laws MP, Minister of State for Schools

There are currently vast differences in the quality of teaching. It is essential in a self improving school system that we also have a self improving teaching profession.

Graham Stuart MP, Chairman
Education Select Committee

The quality of an education system cannot exceed the quality of its teachers and their work.

Andreas Schleicher, OECD

CENTREFORUM

What people are saying about CPD 2

Teachers have not failed, but the demands of change require a concerted, long term programme to build a constantly improving profession.

Chris Husbands, Director of the Institute of Education

High quality professional development has a reach and scale beyond many of the currently favoured initiatives on recruitment and performance management. Teachers should take ownership of their development. It should be done by, not done to, the profession.

Russell Hobby, General Secretary NAHT

To succeed as a nation, we need to get a world-class teacher in every classroom. No education system can exceed the quality of the teaching that goes on in the classroom.

Tristram Hunt Shadow
Education Secretary

CENTREFORUM

What people are saying about CPD 3

The great school systems of the world appoint the best graduates in society to teach, and then invest significantly in their training and development. This investment is not only in initial training but throughout a teacher's career.

Roy Blatchford, Director of the National Education Trust

As we approach the General Election we stand at something of a crossroads. The momentum that the TDT and so many others have built up in arguing for a renewed focus on teacher development could easily be lost unless the right policies are put in place to sustain it.

Mark McCourt Founding Chair, Teacher Development Trust

More Effective Teacher CPD

- ❖ The best way to raise pupil outcomes...
- ❖ is to improve the quality of teaching...
- ❖ through teachers in enhancing and keeping up to date their pedagogical skills, their understanding of learning and child development and their subject knowledge...
- ❖ by giving teachers more responsibility for their CPD

CENTREFORUM

Definition

“CPD is what teachers do to keep their professional practice fresh, up-to-date and stimulating. We believe that by undertaking a wide range of CPD experiences, teachers are more likely to inspire pupils and teach more effectively, enabling pupils to achieve their best.”

General Teaching Council for Scotland

CENTREFORUM

CPD challenges 1

- ❖ Teachers are lifelong learners
- ❖ Much CPD is poor quality: concern about what the best looks like and how to source it.
- ❖ Focus on skills development over impact on pupil progress
- ❖ Under-prioritises teachers needs compared to system reform and school accountability, too “one size fits all”
- ❖ Other professions: GMC revalidation, lawyers certified CPD regime

CENTREFORUM

CPD challenges 2

- ❖ Financial pressures reducing spending by schools
- ❖ Little formal regulation eg in Teaching Standards, Ofsted inspection framework
- ❖ Government reforming everything in education except CPD
- ❖ Workforce reform focuses on ITE and bottom 10%

CENTREFORUM

Current CPD Arrangements: Organisation

- ❖ 5 days' INSET
  - ❖ 100 hours (Singapore), 104 hours (Sweden), 240 hours (Shanghai)
- ❖ Courses
- ❖ NCTL
- ❖ Teaching Schools

CENTREFORUM

Current CPD Arrangements: Budget

CPD Spending (including supply cover)

- ❖ 0.25 – 15% (evidence to HoC Children Schools and Families Committee, 2010)
- ❖ DCSF evidence £180m (0-5% of schools' budgets)
- ❖ 2-3% or £600m-900m on 400,000 experienced teachers

ITE Spending

- ❖ £500m on 40,000 new teachers (£12,500 per teacher)

CENTREFORUM

Current CPD Arrangements: Quality

- ❖ CPD primarily delivered through lectures, presentations and discussion: courses, consultants, written materials
- ❖ Little active learning
- ❖ Hard to compare quality
- ❖ Over-reliance on personal recommendation
- ❖ Only 50% of school leaders allow teachers to choose the external organisation or resource used

CENTREFORUM

Four types of CPD

	No pre-existing skill/knowledge, no preconceptions	Pre-existing skill knowledge, attitudes. Possible misconceptions
Surface-level learning, change in awareness	Informing: e.g. seminars, courses, printed material, social media	Influencing: e.g. discussion/debate, 'emotional' seminars, inspirational talks
Deep learning, change in practice & attitudes	Embedding: e.g. modelling, spaced learning, role-play, repeated practice	Transforming: e.g. coaching, micro-enquiry, research, Lesson Study

Sustain the CPD for at least two terms

- A one-off training event rarely changes habits effectively, you need to actively pursue a new idea or skill for at least two terms, or more than 50 hours if you want to see a long-lasting change. Sustained experimentation and refinement is the best way of embedding a theoretical idea in everyday classroom practice.
- A single course could kick-start this process or act as a refresher during the learning process, but shouldn't be undertaken without a plan to continue the learning back at school or college.
